

Accessibility Statement for Dysléxito. Literacy Solutions for Multilingual and Neurodiverse Learners, LLC.

Last Updated: January 2026

Our Commitment to Accessibility

Dysléxito is committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all people, including those with disabilities, dyslexia, ADHD, and diverse learning needs. We are continually improving the user experience for everyone and applying the relevant accessibility standards.

Conformance Status

We strive to conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA standards. These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible for people with disabilities and neurodiverse learners.

Accessibility Features

Our website includes the following accessibility features:

Visual Accessibility:

- Clear, readable fonts optimized for dyslexic readers
- High contrast text and backgrounds
- Adjustable text sizes
- Alternative text (alt text) for all images
- No auto-playing media
- Clear visual focus indicators for keyboard navigation

Navigation:

- Consistent navigation throughout the site
- Descriptive page titles and headings
- Skip-to-content links
- Logical tab order for keyboard users
- Clear, descriptive link text

Content:

- Plain language writing style
- Short paragraphs and clear structure
- Bilingual content (English and Spanish)
- Closed captions for video content (when available)
- Transcripts for audio content (when available)

Forms & Interaction:

- Clear form labels and instructions
- Error messages that are easy to understand
- Sufficient time for form completion
- No time-sensitive content restrictions

Assistive Technology Compatibility

Our website is designed to be compatible with:

- Screen readers (JAWS, NVDA, VoiceOver)
- Speech recognition software
- Text-to-speech tools
- Keyboard-only navigation
- Browser zoom functions (up to 200%)
- Assistive browser extensions

Third-Party Content

Some content on our site may be provided by third parties (such as embedded apps from Base44). We work with our vendors to ensure their content meets accessibility standards, but we cannot guarantee the accessibility of all third-party content.

Known Limitations

While we strive for full accessibility, some areas may have limitations:

- Base44 Apps: Our literacy apps are hosted on Base44's platform. We work with Base44 to ensure accessibility, but some features may be limited by their platform capabilities.
- PDF Documents: Some downloadable resources may not be fully accessible. Please contact us if you need an alternative format.
- Video Content: We are working to add captions to all video content. If you need a transcript, please contact us.

Feedback & Support

We welcome your feedback on the accessibility of Dysl xico. If you encounter accessibility barriers or need assistance:

Contact Us:

- Email: juliettem@dyslexito.com
- Subject Line: "Accessibility Request"
- Response Time: We aim to respond within 2 business days

Please provide:

- The page URL where you experienced the issue
- A description of the accessibility barrier
- Your preferred format for accessing the content
- Any assistive technology you were using

Accessibility Accommodations

If you need content in an alternative format, we can provide:

- Large print documents
- Plain text versions
- Audio descriptions
- Extended time for forms or assessments
- Simplified language versions

Our Ongoing Commitment

We are committed to:

- Regular accessibility audits and testing
- Training our team on accessibility best practices
- Incorporating accessibility into our design and development process
- Updating this statement as we make improvements
- Listening to user feedback and making necessary adjustments

Technical Specifications

Dysl xico relies on the following technologies for accessibility:

- HTML5
- WAI-ARIA (Accessible Rich Internet Applications)
- CSS3
- JavaScript (progressive enhancement)

Browsers Supported:

- Chrome (latest version)
- Firefox (latest version)
- Safari (latest version)
- Edge (latest version)

Why Accessibility Matters to Us

As a literacy organization serving students with dyslexia, ADHD, and multilingual learners, accessibility isn't just a legal requirement—it's central to our mission. We believe every learner deserves equal access to educational resources, regardless of their abilities or the technology they use.

Standards & Guidelines

This accessibility statement references:

- WCAG 2.1 (Web Content Accessibility Guidelines): International standards for web accessibility
- ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act): U.S. federal law prohibiting discrimination
- Section 508: U.S. federal accessibility standards

Assessment & Testing

Our website has been evaluated using:

- Automated accessibility testing tools
- Manual keyboard navigation testing
- Screen reader testing
- User feedback from our community

Enforcement & Complaints

If you wish to report a formal complaint regarding accessibility:

1. Contact us first: We want to resolve issues directly
2. File with the U.S. Department of Justice: If you believe we've discriminated based on disability
3. Contact your state's Attorney General: For state-level concerns

We prefer to work with you directly to resolve accessibility issues quickly and effectively.

Declaración de Accesibilidad (Accessibility Statement in Spanish)

Dysléxito se compromete a garantizar la accesibilidad digital para todas las personas, incluidas aquellas con discapacidades, dislexia, TDAH y diversas necesidades de aprendizaje.

Para solicitudes de accesibilidad en español:

- Email: julietteb@dyslexito.com
- Asunto: "Solicitud de Accesibilidad"

Proporcionamos recursos en español y podemos ofrecer formatos alternativos según sea necesario.

Updates to This Statement

We review and update this accessibility statement regularly. This statement was last reviewed on January 11, 2026.

Previous Updates:

- January 2026: Initial publication
-

Questions? Contact us at julietteb@dyslexito.com

© 2025 Dysléxito. All rights reserved.
